FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE

This FSG applies from 13 July 2023

THE PURPOSE OF THIS GUIDE

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to assist you in deciding whether to use any of our services and contains important information about:

- The services we offer you
- How we and our associates are paid
- Any potential conflicts of interest we may have
- What to do in the event of a complaint

RESPONSIBILITY FOR SERVICES PROVIDED

We hold an Australian Financial Services Licence and are authorised to advise and deal in the full spectrum of general insurance products.

We are responsible for the financial services provided to you, including the distribution of this FSG.

We are required to meet high standards for staff training, organisational competence, management expertise, financial control and compliance disciplines.

WHO DO WE ACT FOR

We specialize in providing security for businesses and associations and offering products for high risk pursuits and occupations. We predominantly operate as an underwriting agency, sometimes we may deal directly with you, or through your insurance intermediary (such as an insurance broker). Either we or your intermediary will provide you with any relevant Product Disclosure Statement and/or Policy Wording which are designed to assist you to make an informed decision regarding the acquisition of any general insurance product which we deal in or can arrange. We will provide these documents to you only when you deal directly with us, otherwise, they will be provided by your insurance intermediary.

When arranging insurance cover, we may act under a binding authority provided by an insurer in which case we are acting on behalf of that insurer and not as your agent. We may also act on behalf of other insurers providing other general insurance products under separate agency, distribution or referral arrangements. We will set out the basis of any such arrangement at the time of offering you any general insurance products.

RETAIL CLIENTS

Under the Corporations Act 2001 (The Act) Retail Clients are provided with additional protection from other clients. The Act defines Retail Clients as:

Individuals or a manufacturing business employing less than 100 people or any other business employing less than 20 people and that are purchasing the following types of insurance covers:

Motor vehicle, home building, contents, personal and domestic, sickness/accident/travel, consumer credit and other classes as prescribed by regulations (which includes Medical Practitioner Professional Indemnity Insurance). Some of the information in this FSG only applies to Retail Clients and it is important that you understand if you are covered by the additional protection provided.

RETAIL CLIENT ISSUES

Typically we only provide General Advice to our Retail Clients. General Advice does not take into account your particular needs and requirements and you should consider the appropriateness of this advice to your circumstances prior to acting upon it. You should also read the Product Disclosure Statement and consider it before making any decision about whether to acquire this financial product. When you deal directly with us we will provide you with a General Advice Warning in such cases.

When you ask us to recommend an insurance policy for you, we will usually only consider the policies offered by the insurance providers that we deal with regularly. In giving you advice about the costs and terms of recommended policies we have not compared those policies to other policies available, other than from those insurance providers we deal with regularly.

HOW WE ARE REMUNERATED

Generally, insurers will pay us a commission when we arrange and issue an insurance policy on their behalf. This commission is based on a percentage of the premium less stamp duty, GST and any other government charges, taxes or levies. The actual rate of commission can vary from 7.5% to 12.5%. This commission is included in the premium you pay and is charged to cover our operating expenses, pay brokerage commissions to your insurance broker, and to provide a profit component for us. Where a policy is cancelled before the period of insurance has ended we will usually deduct and retain our commission from the amount of any return premium due to you. We may also be entitled to additional remuneration from insurers whom we have profit share or volume bonus arrangements. This remuneration is payable if we meet certain agreed sales and/or profitability targets set by the insurer. Insurers may also provide us additional financial incentives or support in training, conferences and in the promotion of their products.

We may also charge administration fees for administering the policies we arrange. If we charge these they will be shown separately from your premium on invoices we provide. We may also receive bank interest on any premiums that are collected from you and remitted to the insurers.

HOW OUR REPRESENTATIVES ARE PAID

Our representatives do not receive any benefit directly from the sale of a product to you. Our representatives may receive bonuses payable based on the overall performance of our business.

If a person has referred you to us, we may pay them a part of any fees or commission received. If you are a Retail Client and receive Personal Advice full remuneration details will be disclosed in the SOA or invoices related to the advice.
